

please do not change the no-call law so that banks and all their affiliates can pester us with telemarketing calls. You are opening up a pandora's box of problems. Listen to the people, not the banks.